Spring Newsletter 2019

Happy Spring from all of us at Schuylkill Memorial Park. As we move forward into our Spring months projects are underway. The grounds have been cleared of our winter decorations and the repairs to our grounds can commence. Prior to the winter months we set a goal to have all memorials hand trimmed. We will be completing this task in the opening weeks of the season and are set to be completed by Easter.

As with any winter season, unforeseen projects will be created. We lost two of our more developed trees over the winter and will be making plans to clear and improve on their locations. We have also replaced all trash receptacles on the property and hope our caring families continue to utilize them to maintain the park's beauty. Additional Spring projects will be the repair of winter grave sites, memorial installation, mulching our beds and power washing. The birth of Spring always provides additional challenges and new projects; but we welcome the opportunity to improve on the grounds and serenity of the property.

Our funeral staff IS proud of another successful year. Having the opportunity to grow the business and serve more families of Schuylkill County and surrounding areas is always a proud accomplishment. This year we saw more services being conducted from our facility along with more services at churches and outside cemeteries. People have utilized the knowledge of our professionals and support staff to create lasting tributes for their loved ones whether on our property or off-site.

Attorney Shelby Hostetter continues her legal guidance to our families in preparation of the future or in finalizing affairs after a loss. An indispensable asset to us here at the park; Shelby is always available to help with an issue or to simply discuss concerns. She is happy to meet with our families to review wills, medical power of attorney, asset protection, and an array of other areas where she can be of assistance.

Schuylkill Memorial Park, Grabowski Funeral Home, and Attorney Shelby Hostetter is the only facility in the area to offer such a wide and encompassing array of services. We welcome your phone calls with questions or desire to set up appointments with one of our available professionals. We see ourselves as educators in assisting our families and are happy to spend the time reviewing difficult decisions and all our available options. We wish all our families health and happiness this Spring and Beyond!

Warmest Regards,

The Grabowski Family
